ORAL ORDER

(16th February, 2006)

The following order of the Court was passed by Satish K. Agnihotri, J.

1. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners, who are working in the Home Department, are permanent residents of the State of Madhya Pradesh. They had submitted their option for allocation in the State of Madhya Pradesh, in spite of that the petitioners have been allocated to the State of Chhattisgarh and they want their reallocation to the State of Madhya Pradesh. Learned counsel for the petitioners, on instruction, submits that the petitioners be granted liberty to make a representation to the respondents for redressal of their grievances. Learned counsel appearing for the respondents have no objection to the said submission.

2. In view of the foregoing, the petition stands disposed of finally, with liberty to the petitioners to make an appropriate representation to the respondents/authorities concerned, within a period of two weeks from today, and the respondents/authorities are directed to consider and decide the same, in an objective manner, in accordance with law, within a period of eight weeks from the date of receipt of the representation, if any.
